

Welcome to Sydenstricker UMC. As we celebrate our church's 100th anniversary, we are pleased that you are taking a moment to learn more about us and who we are. We are a friendly, loving neighborhood church, where all are welcome! We're proud of our Methodist heritage of acceptance and boast a diversity of opinions, cultural traditions, ethnic backgrounds and beliefs within our church family.

As United Methodist, we don't apply a doctrinal purity test to our members; instead, we welcome everyone into our church family. We respect and learn from our differences and grow and work together in our communal journey of transformation and service.

As you go through our website, I would ask you to visit "News from the Pews." You will find it in the upper right hand corner of our front page. This electronic newsletter will give you a good idea what we are doing as a church and you will get a feel for the various church activities.

Please visit us. Whether you're looking for answers to questions about God or you're a committed Christian seeking to grow deeper in your faith. You will find a caring, welcoming home at Sydenstricker. God bless,

Rev. H. Leroy Seibert, Senior Pastor
Rev. Scott A. Beck, Associate Pastor
